

NEW ORDINANCES FOR FY 2004-2005:

The City of Durham and the US Department of Justice, Federal Asset Forfeiture Funds FY 2004-2005

Every year, the Police Department equitably shares in cash received from federal asset forfeitures and a new ordinance is set up each year to receive the expected revenues. The federal asset forfeiture revenue and all accrued interest must be used solely for law enforcement purposes to supplement, not supplant, the Police Department's existing resources.

The City of Durham and the State of North Carolina Controlled Substance Abuse Funds FY 2004-2005

Every year, the Police Department equitably shares in cash received from North Carolina controlled substances excise tax assessments, sometimes called Tax Stamp Funds, and a new ordinance is set up each year to receive the expected revenues. The controlled substance excise tax assessment revenue and all accrued interest must be used solely for law enforcement purposes to supplement, not supplant, the Police Department's existing resources.

REVISION OF PREVIOUS ORDINANCES:

Revision to Grant Project Ordinance #12862 Concerning the City of Durham and The U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance for "Local Law Enforcement Block Grant" FY 2003-2004

This ordinance is being revised to reflect the local match by the City of Durham of $25,624.00, which is 10 % of the total amount of the grant. This grant project is authorized to improve public safety and to reduce crime for the period specified.

Revision to Grant Project Ordinance #12822 Concerning the City of Durham and The U.S. Department of Justice "Federal Asset Forfeiture Funds" FY 2003-04

The City of Durham entered into an agreement to equitably share in cash received from Federal Asset Forfeitures. These funds and any accrued interest will be solely used for law enforcement purposes to supplement, not supplant, the Police Department's existing resources. This ordinance needs to be revised to reflect the actual amount of the award.

Revision to Grant Project Ordinance #12852 Concerning the City of Durham and The State of North Carolina Governor's Crime Commission's Juvenile Accountability Incentive Block Grant Project FY 2003-2004

The City of Durham was awarded a grant from the North Carolina Governor's Crime Commission to underwrite the costs of promoting greater accountability in the juvenile system. This ordinance reflects an extension three months to complete the project.

Revision to Grant Project Ordinance #12145 Concerning the City of Durham and The U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Violence Against Women, FY 2000-2002

The City of Durham was awarded continued funding for the Domestic Violence Unit to enhance domestic violence crime reduction and victim services efforts. This ordinance needed to be revised for program income available to be expended on the project.
